

Merry Christmas TVMC !!!

Another year has gone by already. 2007 will soon be 2008. That means another few gray hairs to most of us in the club. Take note younger members. Your day is coming. We've had a good year overall. Our show is continuing to grow and I think with effort from all members it will only get bigger and better. I hope to see more sponsorship in the future too. Marshall Mize was a huge leap in growing a relationship with a dealership. I hope we can continue to have them as a sponsor.

For those of you who missed our annual Christmas party this year you missed a cutthroat display by the ladies. I only saw a couple of the gentlemen exchange their unopened gift for a better one but the ladies were ruthless in their efforts to claim the prized Crock-pot or their favorite body lotion or bath oils. It got pretty ugly and for a moment I thought some hair was about to be pulled. Of course I'm kidding but it was funny to watch. POOR KAREN! Destiny was not on your side that night. ☺

In closing I hope each and every one of you has a joyful Christmas and a happy New Year! Remember what the season is about and relish in family and friends too. In the end that's what matters the most. Faith, family, and friends. Remember our troops who are away from their families and friends too. Their sacrifice needs to be in your thoughts and prayers whether you support the policies that put them there or not.

Happy Holiday's!

James
